The LINEUP

TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

The stars have aligned at Timber Cove, where a dream team was set loose on a classic, Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired structure perched on one of the most breathtaking stretches of coastline in the world. The just-unveiled resort was reimaged by Gensler (on architecture) and the Novogratz (on design), and the result is 46 impeccably modern guest rooms on the Sonoma Coast that will surely make many design-obsessed road trippers say, "Sea Ranch who?" Even if you can't snag a room, be sure to make a pit stop at Coast Kitchen, where locally caught seafood is the highlight and is exceptionally executed by chef Phillip Kaufman. timbercoveresort.com
