HOTELS FOR WINE-LOVERS

Whether in bucolic wine country or a bustling big city, wine takes centre stage at these diverse properties.

COASTAL CALIFORNIA

TIMBER COVE RESORT

Sonoma County, Calif.

It's a long and winding road along jagged ocean bluffs to get here, but this 46-room hideaway is worth the trek. Explore the many hiking trails that surround the property, or, on stormy days, stay inside and enjoy a glass of Fort Ross Vineyard's Pinot Noir from the mini-bar. Vintage throwbacks include record players in every room and retro Smeg refrigerators in the suites. Ask about the VIP wine passport for free tastings and discounts on all wine purchases at nearby wineries. Timber Cove partners with Hirsch Vineyards to offer Pinot Noir and Chardonnay flights in an exclusive tasting room facing the sea. And amiable servers at Coast Kitchen will gladly pair your meal with the best Sonoma wines. Rates from US$250. (timbercoveresort.com)
